

on street corners), it may be necessary to refer to the written description. The street address of a residence is used to determine whether that dwelling is inside a particular LIA. The LIA description can be found in the School Profile System on the Department of Education website. While local-intake areas for most schools do not change from year to year, changes are made to local-intake areas as required. Such changes are published in the "WA Government Gazette" (usually in a December issue) and subsequently this map will be updated. For any enquiries contact Department of Education.
